Now here is a great opportunity to buy a building and a well established business in Rocky Mountain House. G & M Graphics has been in operation for 49 years and in this highly visible location for 20 years with a very established client base. The thoughtfully designed and laid out building was constructed by local builder Derryl Rocque and has served the business well with a bright and roomy front reception area, a wide open middle part of the building for an easy to configure work space and plenty of room for equipment. For shipping and receiving there's a convenient side loading room with good access and an overhead garage door. The printing business, equipment and inventory is also available for an additional price.
