A well-established and reputable convenience store in Nova Scotia is available for confidential sale. The business has served its community for many years and offers consistent year-round revenue, stable customer flow, and strong profitability. Ideal for an owner-operator or family-run business seeking a reliable income stream with growth. There is also an additional income opportunity to purchase a 2 apartment rental unit next door. The business also adds on revenue from flower/plant sales in the spring with a greenhouse on the property. Business location will be disclosed after signing a NDA
