Main Street opportunity in the heart of Cardston. This affordable commercial building offers exceptional visibility and steady foot traffic—an ideal spot for a new business, professional office, retail shop, or a wide range of other uses. The main floor has been home to a long standing accounting office, offering a solid starting point for a variety of commercial uses. The upper level provides additional square footage with the potential to be developed into a residential apartment or expanded office space, creating a valuable live work setup or an extra income stream. With its flexible zoning, strong location, and budget friendly price point, this property is a smart investment for entrepreneurs, investors, or anyone looking to establish a presence within Cardston's active business area.
