Excellent opportunity to acquire an established sub franchise business in a busy NW Calgary location with strong exposure, loyal clientele, and growth potential for an owner-operator. Turnkey operation in a well-established trade area supported by surrounding residential density and everyday traffic. Business offers stable sales history, established operations, and lease in place with renewal options. Motivated seller. Franchise-required renovation is due and buyer should budget accordingly. Suitable for qualified cash buyers only (no financing condition preferred). Business asset sale only — no real property included. Confidential listing; financial information available upon signing NDA. Please do not approach staff or speak with employees. All inquiries and showings by appointment through listing agent only.
