Looking for a new opportunity to be your own boss and operate your own business? Business's like this one seldom come up for sale. Registries is a business that has a steady flow of clientele and offers services that are used by everyone and this is only one of two registries offices currently in operation in the Peace River/Grimshaw area. This office services from both centers and draws from the larger surrounding trading area. Services that the business can offer include motor vehicle registrations, corporate registries, vital statistics, commissioner for oaths, road tests and more. There is a great opportunity to grow this business into something larger than it is currently. It just takes the right person with the right vision. Business only for sale. Building and land listed separately.
